Rams In Tilt With Cameron Okla. Aggies

The Rams met the Oklahoma Champions, the Cameron Aggies, last night in Lawton, Okla. Because of our hour of press we could obtain no results of last night's contest.

43 Jack Bicknell, 22 W. H. Payne, 47 Winston Modgling, and 24 W. O. Cox.

Ex Students Come Home

The Exes of San Angelo College were honored last Friday with a big homecoming program. In this program was included a tea in the Homemaking room, a reserved section at the Ram-Schreiner game, and a dance in the girls gym after the game. The Ex-Student Association together with the College Committee worked to put over this event in honor of the homecoming students.

Hostesses at the tea in the afternoon were: Martha Jane Womack, Louise Davis, Jean Stepp, Margie Irwin, June Covington, Gloria Fread, Elene Rickabaugh, Claudia White, Patty Woods, and Betty Fuller. Besides the faculty, these ex-students attended the tea: Mrs. Ed B. Keyes, Melvin E. Layne, Warden Owens, Mrs. James A. Bennett, Paul Davis, Helen Abbott, Mrs. Jesse Sheen, Mrs. Charles Moore, Jr., Herbert Taylor, Jr., Mrs. Morris Coward, Mrs. Marvin Hall, Jr., Elizabeth Duncan, Margaret Sawberger, Odelle Williams, Sallie Fae Bailey, Nelle Taylor, Marian Shutt, Dorothy Kindred, Daisy Marshall, Marjorie Brown, and Lou Ella Branton.

After the game Friday night, a bunch of both exes and present college students attended the dance in the girls gym. The gym was beautifully decorated with black and gold crepe paper and black and gold balloons. Jeanette Clements and Ernest Wilbanks were in charge of the dance and I think everyone will agree with me in that it was a big success and that everyone has a swell time.

Hobart K. McDowell, Jr., will be presented by the Pocahontas Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in a book review of "The Keys of the Kingdom," by A. J. Cronin, Monday evening, at 7:45 in the Main Dining Room of the St. Angelus Hotel. The admission will be twenty-five cents (25c). Bart Editor in Chief of the Ram-Page has temporarily resigned his position in order to present a book review

The only common foe for both teams is the John Tarleton Flows who tied the Aggies 6-6 and beat the Rams 14-0.

Cameron is the proverbial state champion of Oklahoma and has been so for so long that it is only a matter of waiting for the season to end before they claim the title.

In four contests the Rams have won one, a non conference tilt, tied two conference games and lost one of the same. The two ties came at the hands of Decatur and the Schreiner Mountaineer squad.

No available dope was to be had on the Aggies but here are the men who will travel to Lawton for the game.

San Angelo will be sorely handicapped because of injuries. Douglas Cox will be out because of a heel operation, Lane is still out with an injured knee, and Charlie Allison is out for the season with a broken leg bone.

Coach Jess Thompson of the Aggies spotted the Rams in their game with Schreiner and says that his team has no business in the same stadium with the San Angelo team. That the Rams have a potent team is true enough but a number of our stars were out of the contest last night and it looked as if the Aggies might have a goodly edge over the Gold and Black.

In five games, previous to the Ram encounter, the Aggies had won three, tied one and lost one. They were defeated 20-0 by the Southwesterners Tech Bulldogs and played John Tarleton to a 6-6 tie. They won 10-7 over East Central (Oklahoma), 25-0 over Panhandle (Okla.) Aggies, and 27-0 over Tonkawa Junior College.

Further Plans On Varsity Show

Mr. Ardis, chairman of the Varsity show, met Tuesday evening with a committee to get suggestions for the name of this year's show. The theme this year will feature the four points of the compass — North, East, South, and West.

This year's Varsity show will consist of four acts — one for each of the compass points. The length of the acts has not been set. Although the script has not been completed, the authors have several ideas that promise to work into something really big.

The members of the business committee are as follows: Milman Rochester, business manager; Bart McDowell and Miles Sedberry, script; Jon Miller, music; Norman Sturges, lighting; and Raymond Smith, stage manager. Other members will be appointed later.

Mr. Ardis has issued a call for talent. If you can dance, sing, act, or have a novelty act, you should get in touch with Mr. Ardis or one of the members of the business committee. If you know of any backward soul who just hasn't the nerve to tell someone of his latent talents, turn his or her name into the committee also.

Notice

"Classes will run on assembly schedule Saturday due to a request for a freshman class meeting," Dr. Elkins stated Tuesday. Wood Butler, freshman prexy, urges all freshmen to attend this meeting. The meeting has been called to decide on freshman caps and to elect a sponsor.

Rec Room Will Open Soon

In a special meeting of the Student Council, Student President, John Harper decreed that the week of October 20 to 26 was to be "Recreation Room Week."

The Council held their meeting in the Rec Room and pointed out what was going to have to be done to make it a place the school would like to go to.

Plans made at the meeting Tuesday included, painting the walls a two color scheme, possibly white with a different colored border around it, and a concession stand selling candy, drinks, and possibly cigarettes.

A contest was suggested in which the Sophs would race the Freshmen to see who could gather the most equipment for the Recreation Room. Wood Butler, Fish Prexy, will lead the Freshmen and Sophomore President J. W. Rice will head the upperclassmen.

Mr. Bright was appointed Rec. Room sponsor by the committee heading the workers.

Jon Miller, Rec. Room chairman, stated:

"It is up to the students to make it attractive. The Council will do all they can to do it up right but it is the Students room and it will be as nice as they choose to make it. I ask the cooperation of every person in the college to help make it the biggest success San Angelo College has ever seen."

There is a possibility of a concession to obtain money for the student activity. Coffee, tea and doughnuts will be served once a week. This ought to suit the dunkers just fine. Many different kinds of contest will be held this (Continued On Page 2)

Fall Play Still Shy One Brat

Individual characterization is now taking place. This means that each actor is to do his lines individually to get the correct expression and exact characterization of the part needed. Of course this will be under the tutelage of Mr. Ardis.

When casting a play Ardis lets each member write out a cast as he would like to have it. This enables him to pick a cast easier. Sometimes the students can find the right one easier as happened in the part of Annabelle Fuller when every one of his students picked Vesta Chenoweth for the part. J. W. Rice will play the part of Newton Fuller opposite Vesta.

The San Angelo College fall play is moving into its second week of production. The part of Raymond, brat in the play intitled "George Washington Slept Here", has not yet been cast. Three Junior High boys have given their names to Mr. Ardis for a chance at this part. They are; Roemer Hudler, Pope Hays and John Spratt, who is the son of history teacher Spratt. Each one of these boys will be given a copy of the part of Raymond to learn. After they have learned their lines they will be given a chance to act with the rest of the cast to see which one fits the part best.

Bathing suits will be worn for the first time in a San Angelo College production. A new supply of makeup has been ordered by Mr. Ardis. Work on the set which is called a box type has been started by Miles Sedberry with the help of Raymond Smith.

Sticking Out Our Editorial Neck Wright Pleas

Who says they are not interesting? Why don't you try reading them and see? There are really a great many opportunities to be derived from reading the adds in the Ram-Page. The San Angelo merchants advertise with us to show that they are behind us and to realize some profit. If they are nice enough to advertise with us, let's at least be nice enough to read them. Let's show them that we appreciate their efforts on our behalf. Whether it is a large display add or just a small card add, we should show our sportsmanship and patronize those San Angelo merchants who give us their advertising.

So read the adds. They might prove very beneficial to you.

SAC In Texas

John Davenport, last year's editor of the RAM-PAGE and a leading student of SAC, is now a student of the University of Texas School of Law. His is working fourteen hours a night as night clerk at the Lamar Hotel there in Austin. In this way, he is sending himself through school, and at the same time he is keeping up his good grades. He just liked three points being on the Law School Honor Roll.

John sends his greetings to the RAM-PAGE staff and members of SAC.

Also going to law school there are Richard Bogard, Ray "Pinky" Stevens, Ralph Wilson, and Leroy LaSalle, all past members of the SAC student body.

Leroy LaSalle received one of the coveted Quizmaster positions. He is the only person from San Angelo that is a mid-law student and eligible for the position.

Other Ex-SAC students enrolled—Elsie Boehme, Ralph Chase, Lewis Wilson, Orville Guenther, Philip Cox, John Economidis, Bill Bradley, Marvin Lisso, and Mary Ann Kenny. These students attended SAC last year, so all the Sops should remember them.

By Lida Norwell

College is a pretty good place to be after all. After interviewing some of the Freshmen, I decided that no one comes to college because they have too—but because they really like it and what they get out of college life.

"Every-body is some-body", said Gene Wills, "and there is so much more school spirit than there was in high school. Over here, the teachers talk with you, not to you."

Bob Lane said, "College is what I expected. It's interesting and worthwhile; so I like it. College gives you a chance to study if you want to, and the opportunity to be social if you like."

Elton Riley especially likes the spirit at the football games. Smitty Buchanan thinks the football games are swell, and the dances are better.

"I think college is 100% better than high school and oodles more fun. Nearly all the kids run in one big crowd instead of about 25 little ones," commented Bonnie Lou Zeigler.

As vice-prexy of the Freshman class, Guy Lively said, "Being a freshman in college opens up an entire new life. Of course, the first few weeks are the most interesting because of new acquaintances and experiences each day. The only thing I dislike is that there is not time for sleep."

By Otto Taylor

The Ex-Students Association activities last week were really a huge success for everybody concerned. The work turned in by the college committee was something to marvel at.

Jeanette Clements chairmans the committee and did a great deal of worrying and work to help put the dance over.

Martha Jane Womack working with Mrs. Wade put on one of the finest Teas the exes have ever had. It was well planned, well organized and executed perfectly. Martha Jane and Mrs. Wade really did a job in making the Ex-Students feel at home.

Decorations and music were well taken care of by Ernest Wilbanks. He really decorated the Girl's Gymnasium well and did a good job in selecting the records. And all in all, the dance was one that will be long remembered—both by the Ex-Students and present students who seemed to enjoy every musical minute.

J. W. (Stubby) Rice, and Miles Sedberry did their share in advertising and getting students to come out for the affair.

READING MATTER

The reading Club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday evening. Miss Lynn Eikel, who is acting as sponsor this year, was the hostess. Those present discussed new books which they had read. Penrose Jackson gave a brief review of Cinderella's Daughter by John Erskine.

It is the purpose of this club to have informal discussions on books, plays, and current happenings. All those who like to read and discuss their readings are invited to come to this meeting. There is no certain requirement for membership. If you are interested in attending these meetings, ask Miss Eikel, the librarian, about the next meeting of this club.

Choir Rehearses New Numbers

The college choir is now learning a humorous musical sketch, "A Peasant and His Oxen", by Aschenbrenner. The first day Mr. Brumbelow presented the number to the group, very little progress was made because of the numerous quality of the number. The song is arranged in such a way that the sopranos and altos are calling out "Gee Haw" while the basses and tenors are counting away in a deep rumble, "one, two, three, four—".

On the more serious side, the choir is learning church music from the pen of the greatest composer of religious music, Palestina. The number is "Response," and Keith Crowley will do the chanting.

A complete list of the numbers in the choir follows:

Maxine Montgomery, Geraldine Rhyne, Virginia Smith, Dorothy Meadows, Mary Jim Thompson, June Covington, Bettye Fuller, President, Margie Erwin, Jean Stepp, Vice-Pres., Bitsy Huling, Jack Gray, Buster Reed, Gene Wills, Wood Butler, John Scott Harris, Secretary, Elliott Harlow, Keith Crowley, year such as jitterbugging and ping-pong. Plans are going forward to give dancing lessons to those who wish to learn the fine art of rhythm thus eliminating many a wall-flower. Ping-pong enthusiasts will be given a chance to demonstrate their skill at wielding the paddle. There are two or three different ideas about how to furnish music for dancing. The thought of purchasing a juke box has all but been cast aside because of the extreme cost which will be rendered throughout the year. A record player may be purchased by the committee to furnish music. No instrument of any kind will be allowed to play before two p. m.

A definite opening date has not been set but it will likely be the middle of next week.

The supporters of SAC Rams have cause to start wailing. In the first place, Robert Lane will still be unable to see much service because of his injured knee, and on top of that Douglas Cox, another tailback, will not be in uniform because of an operation on his foot early this week to remove a chipped bone. Little Charlie Allison is on crutches as the result of a small bone being broken just below his knee in the Schreiner game. Roy McCorkle took his physical examination for the army Monday and luckily was placed in class 4-B. A bright spot in all the gloom is that Luthur Morris will finally be ready to handle a full night's work. He'll have to because Cox and Lane have been replacing themselves and Morris in the first games of the season.

It is a small wonder that we have as few bunched as we do after the way the Schreiner boys played. Talking to the players and mone own eyes brings to light that there should have been more leg injuries than they were. Outside of Allison and Cox, Norman Elrod, San Angelo end, was taken from the game with an injured knee. It seems that there was a bit of ankle and knee twisting in that game on the part of the boys in the Maroon suits. Also a slugfest while the Referees eyes were looking the other way and all such stuff.

I couldn't exactly say I'm sticking out my neck when I say that Kilgore will win the TJCC crown this year. It is pretty nearly considered that it will be so. Notice above that they smothered the Plowboys of John Tarleton 33-7 and that same J. Tarleton team took the Rams, if not deservingly, 14-0. The Rams, however, do not meet the Kilgore eleven.

Junior College Scores:

Rams-Schreiner Tie For Second Time

The Rams of San Angelo College tied the powerful Schreiner Institute Mountaineers 0-0, but gained another moral victory. Angelo College has yet to gain a victory in the Texas Junior College Conference. The Rams outplayed Decatur in a 6-6 tie, then dropped the next conference game 14-0 to John Tarleton, who was beaten last week by Kilgore Junior College 33-7.

Early in the first period Cox attempted to kick from behind the Ram goal line but the kick was knocked high in the air. Cox got it on the run and puit on the three from where he kicked again and this time the ball went out to Youngblood on the Schreiner 45. The Mountaineer fumbled and Ted Moss 245-pound Ram guard recovered but all to no avail.

It was mostly a punting duel during the first half with the Schreiner team getting away plenty of quick kicks and setting the Rams back down on the Ram end of the field. The San Angelo lads never pulled a quick during the course of the game and as a result the Black and Gold came out on the bad end of the kicking deal.

In the third quarter the San Angelo team made one of their numerous bids for a score when Gordon Powers intercepted a pass and raced back to the 26-yard line. The Ram power drove to the Schreiner 7 but it was stopped cold in three plays. Ellis Jones attempted a kick from placement but the Ram line let them through and it was blocked.

In the fourth Powers returned a punt to the Mountaineer 20 but the 12 was as far as the Rams could take it.

Ellis Jones and "Big Daddy" Payne roughed it up plenty in the Schreiner backfield and took care of the defensive chores in a big way. Charley Allison was taken out after but a few plays with a hurt knee as was End Norman Elrod. Robert Lane, tailback from San Antonio, had an injured knee but nevertheless was inserted in the line-up and on two pass plays was smothered behind the line for losses.

The Rams made a good showing in statistics for the Ex-Students, however, gaining 164 yards rushing against 35 yards for Schreiner. Angelo College made 9 first downs and held Schreiner for 0.

Application For College Project Filed With WPA

According to Dr. Elkins the San Angelo College building project will go through.

The major project consists of five projects; (1) an education building, (2) power plant and band house, (3) gym, (4) science building, and (5) ground improvements. The cost has been divided into two parts — (1) sponsors cost and (2) federal cost. When reduced to dollars and cents it looks like this:

The sponsors cost will be paid by bonds sold locally. This part of the project is in the hands of the proper bond lawyers. The federal part of the project is being handled through the WPA. The project has passed the local WPA authorities and has been filed with the San Antonio board. If the San Antonio Board passes the project on to the federal board the new college buildings are a fairly sure prospect.

The federal board will give individual consideration to each case. It is in this phase of legislation that the hopes of Dr. Elkins and the Board are centered.

If, however, there occurs some more serious developments in the national defense program there might be a complete curtailment of the building project. As the plans for the project now stand, the building materials do not constitute many materials, needed for national defense, in which at present there is a shortage.

SEEING THE Southwest by JACK Buchanan

Texas-Oklahoma

The team generally considered to be the team of the Southwest, the mighty Texas Longhorns, gave an exhibition that amazed even the most optimistic Texas backers and downed the Sooners of Oklahoma U. 40-7 in the Cotton Bowl last Saturday. Jack Crain led the Longhorns in the early stages of the contest, and scored 14 points single-handed. The first score came as the result of a pass from Pete Layden to Jack Crain and the second touchdown came when Layden latered to Crain and took out a host of O. U. tacklers and Crain went over standing up. He kicked both points and then the second string went to work and completely handcuffed the Sooners.

Aggies-N. Y. U.

The score was 7-7 at the half but when the game was over the Texas Aggies had a 49-7 victory over the N. Y. U. Violets. De-race Moser, the only remaining back of last year's great team, sparked the Aggies in the second half and the Texas boys ran up 42 points and held the Violets to a flat 0. Coach Homer Norton, trying to hold down the score, used everyone that made the trip, but the Aggies had too much for the Yankees. Jake Webster, a former Sweetwater ace, scored one touchdown and kicked seven consecutive after points kicks without a miss.

S. M. U.-College of Pacific

Alonzo Staggs College of Pacific won the admiration of the fans but that is all and went down before the red hot S. M. U. Mustangs 34-0 in the Tyler Rose Festival game. The Methodists scored on the ground and through the air and gave fair warning that they are going to be a hard team to keep away from the Southwest Conference flag.

T. C. U. Indiana

Flashing a powerful air attack the T. C. U. Frogs smashed their way to a 20-14 victory over the University of Indiana eleven. In the fourth quarter it appeared as if the Frogs had an easy 20-7 victory in their pockets, but the Hoosiers scored once and the Frogs held another attack on their 5-yard line and escaped with the slim of victory. Little Kyle Gillespie proved his passing prowess by passing the T. C. U. Frogs to victory.

JOKES NOT BY JAKE BY GOSH

"Have you heard the story going around about Vesta and Ann?"

"Heard it, why darling I started it!"

"Helen don't go to far out in the water."

Jake. "Surely you haven't forgotten already, teacher!!"

P. S. What is the Significance of "Green Eyes" to J. M. Huling?

Rice-Tulane

The game little Rice Owls downed the mighty Green Wave of Tulane in the upset of the Southwest last Saturday 10-9. The uncomparable Bob Brumbley scored all 10 of the Owls points, and sparked the Owls to victory. Scoring in the first five minutes of play the mighty midgets turned the powerful Green Wave into a harmless ripple, until the third quarter and within three minutes after it started Tulane tied the game up 7-7. In the last quarter the Owls recovered a Tulane fumble and marched to the Green Wave 11-yard line, from there Bob Brumley booted a perfect pigskin for 3 points, which proved the margin of victory. Tulane got back a points as rolled out of the end zone.

Baylor-Arkansas

Arkansas scored first, But Jack Wilson and the Baylor Bears scored 20 points of their own and that was all there was to it. Relying mainly on passes the Baylor Bears completely befuddled the Razorbacks, and scored their first conference in 2 years.

Profs Praise Gray

One of the most outstanding with a place among the first musicians in West Texas is in chairs of America, a bound edition of the highest ranking young musicians in the country.

Upon graduation from S. A. H. S. Gray entered the halls of our college and once again renewed his pursuit of the musical depths. He stepped into the second semester harmony class and emerged with honors as high as can be obtained.

Mr. Carl Brumbelow, music and chorus instructor in the college says, "Jack is indeed one of the most accomplished musicians for his age. He has music in his soul and is a musician at heart. I'm looking forward to a great career for him. He is truly inspired and I am for him 100%."

Young Gray's ambition is—to be a concert saxophonist after intensive study under the music masters of the saxophone.

"I want to play a saxophone." There he began his musical career. With Anderson's ever-present advice and aid, Gray learned his principles of keys, sharps flats, clefs, transpositions, and all the accompanying requirements of the early musician.

Through every summer and winter for four years, Jack adopted courses consisting of transposition, harmony, and arranging. Every summer session of music found him studying hard and trying his hand at composition and arranging. During his senior year the young collegian arranged from his knowledge of the popular hits "In the Mood", and "Bluebirds in the Moonlight." Four saxophonists played these at the Senior Banquet at the high school.

His senior year bestowed upon him the honor and responsibility of the presidency of the High School Bobcat Band. His high school musical years were constantly studded with praises of his growing musicianship. His high school honors were topped

Reed Band Selects Vocalist

Buster Reed, S. A. C. student and popular leader of a reorganized dance band now consisting of 9 members held an audition the night of October 9. The girls trying out were, Norma Rains, Bette Presley, Joan Metcalf, June Mims, Corrine Hall, June Lollar, and Patsy Allison. The runoff was between June Lollar, Bette Presley, Corrine Hall and Patsy Allison. Patsy came out the winner, June Lollar, was second, and Bette Presley was third.

Patsy showed that she had the makings of a great vocalist if she will only stay with the band. The Draker dance was a great dance and everyone had a swell ole time. The band itself is getting better every time it plays. We are all looking forward to Reed's next dance at the Hangar.

BROWSING WITH

Bagga

Well, here we are Bagga-gain.

Four studious but stupid stags spent Sunday studying strenuously at Gene Bowen's boathouse at Lake Nasworthy. From all reports they covered the case mighty well. These stupendous simpletons were H. Smith, Sedberry, Bowen and Rochester.

Not only did Schreiner bring a team to San Angelo last week but also information leading us to believe that several letters have been written (by that 180 lbs. of love and romance) setting forth the "merits", ahem, of S. A. C.'s favorite drum majorette.

Jeannette Clements seemed to be the focal point of the military man-euvers at the Exes Dance Friday night. She was really getting the bums-rush. (By bums, we mean Schreiner.)

The Theta Beta Zetas are suffering from hypertension and near coronary thrombosis as a result of the swell arrangement of the Draker theme song made and played by Reed's Orch. at the Draker affair Saturday night.

That Lively Guy betrayed his trust to a certain beautiful Abilene coed when he stepped out on a "1-2-3" with Buster Reed and Pat Allison, "Dogface" Renner and Charlotte "Okie" Lollar. The lassie smiling shyly on Guy's strong right arm was June Hudson.

Why was Neill DeLaney looking so moonstruck over the weekend? It wasn't our fault. Don't Boehme us.

Three members of our faculty really shuffled at the Pigskin Shuffl'. They were Mr. Brumbelow, Mr. Smith, and Mrs. Glasgow. The latter two were accompanied by their "better halves."

Seen cutting a rug at the Exes Dance—Miss Rountree.

News from Austin tells us that our former "enlightener of the elements" H. D. Pope is sweating very hard on his Ph. D.

Up from the U. of Texas to occupy Evelyn Tyler's attention Friday night was Warren "Slick" Sligar. Also from that institution were exes Mary Ann Kenney, Marvin Lisso, Ralph Chate, Lewis Wilson, Elsie Boehme, Phil Cox, Charles "Chuck" Taylor, and Anne Templeton.

From H. S. U. were ex-Rams John Teague and Amos Gray, stars of two seasons Bagga.

Deserting the ranks and files at Goodfellow Field and S. A. C., Sgt. Bill "Wee Willie" Payne sojourned to Austin over the weekend, his "true love for to see."

NOTICE: The faculty requests that the students (male and female) do not enter the building chewing to-Bagga.

This column is beginning to get so lengthy it sounds like a Baggalaureate sermon. Let's quit right here.

Oh yes, my love, I understand The value of a bird in the hand; But ere I settle down with you I'd like to see the other two.

Annual Campaign Gathers Force

Dick Harris, Editor in Chief of the Annual, has announced a tentative staff of students who have volunteered their services to work on the Rambouillet.

Positions assured are the Associate Editor, Evelyn Tyler and the Business Manager, Gloria Fread. Evelyn was editor of the San Angelo High School annual and was defeated by Harris in the election for the editorship. Gloria was a member of the SAC annual staff last year.

In the class section are June Covington, May Hemphill, and Charles Buttery.

The sports department consists of William Payne, J. M. Huling and E. R. Schindler.

Bob Stringer will handle all art work. He was Art Editor last year and created the cute little character SAC.

Included in the general staff will be Elene Rickabaugh, Robert Maginot, Harvey Lee Kelley, Douglas Guenther, Miles Sedberry, Lida Norwell, and Gene Wills.

Anyone in the College with any experience what so ever and who would like to work on the Annual, please see Dick Harris in the near future.

Mrs. Blank: "It's cold tonight, Sara; you had better put an iron in your bed to warm it up."
Sara: "All right, mum."
Mrs. Blank (next morning): "How did you sleep last night, Sara?"
Sara: "Pretty good, ma'am, I had the iron almost warm by mornng."
