SAC TRUSTEES ELECTED

Robert G. Carr and Jean S. Johnson were re-elected as trustees of San Angelo College over Ed L. Nunnally in the race on Saturday, April 2.

Both were elected to six-year terms on the board.

Sophomores Doing Last Minute Work

Most of the sophomores at SAC were busy with English research last week, if the crowded tables in the library points to this fact.

Note cards and writing paper were scattered over the tables, and in the midst of it all, some weary and nerve-racked student was beating his brains out finishing up late work on the last day.

What makes a person put something off until the last minute is beyond me, because in the long run it is better to do a little at a time, instead of waiting until the last minute to do it all.

USAF Band To Appear Here Today

The United States Air Force Band will appear before the public of San Angelo when they present two concerts here in the municipal auditorium April 6.

The band was first organized in June, 1942, and in less than seven years has taken its place along side of the official bands of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps.

Lt. Col. George S. Howard, distinguished conductor of the band, has had a brilliant career in the music world and is an inspiration to every young musician of the present time.

His United States Air Force Band enjoys today the reputation of being the topflight musical organization of its kind in the world, and expresses in full measure Lt. Col. Howard's objectives, his ideals and his hard work.

Robert L. Landers will direct the internationally famed "Singing Sergeants" when they make their appearance in San Angelo with the band.

His musical career includes guest conducting the WPA Symphony of Michigan, the North Carolina Festival orchestra, and he was the head of the Music Department of McAlester, Oklahoma High School.

M/Sgt. Glenn Darwin, distinguished American baritone of the U.S.A.F. band, belongs to the relatively small group of singers equally at home on the opera stage, in the radio studio, or on the Broadway stage.

Class B Meet Held At SAC April 1-2

San Angelo College was host to the district class B schools in their annual athletic and literary meet on Friday and Saturday, April 1-2. It was the first time that SAC has entertained such a group.

Grade school and high school students entered such events as the Spelling Contest, Ready Writers, Number Sense, Slide Rule, Extemporaneous Speaking, Debate, Declamation, Typing, Story Telling, Choral Singing, One-Act Play Contest, and the Baseball and Softball Contests.

Mrs. Yearwood was in charge of getting local students to judge in the contests. Students who cooperated in this way were Pat Mitchell, Maudie Watson, Ernestine Carpenter, Betty Serface, Shirley Stevens, Joan Roberts, Mr. Windsor, Mrs. Peck, Miss Kelly, Mildred Philippus, Bill Wilkins.

Also F. L. Johnson, Mr. Strickland, Vernon Tatsch, Mrs. Eilers, Marilyn Tabor, Mr. Bright, Claude Leath, Arthur Lorfing, Joe Peacock, Mary Katherine Hurn, Mr. Masterson, Mrs. Berry, Miss Douglas, Mr. Ardis, Billie Barrett, Chuck Taylor, Nolan Gotcher, Patty Taylor, and Margurite Kevil.

Mrs. Yearwood said that these students (Continued on page 3)

M/Sgt. Glenn Darwin, pictured above, will be featured vocal soloist when the USAF Band is presented in concert in the Municipal Auditorium here April 6.

NAVAL OFFICER TO TALK

Students and faculty members interested in the United States Naval Aviation program should see Lt. James E. Tout of the Naval Officers Procurement office in Dallas after assembly Friday morning.

Lt. Tout reminded that students eligible for this program must be single, between the ages of 18-27, and may submit applications during the last semester of the required two years of college training.

AG. DEPT. LAMBS SELL FOR ALL-TIME HIGH

SAC fat lambs received the all-time high of $25.70 per hundredweight at the San Angelo Auction Company last Saturday.

"These lambs were put on feed at the college farm for the purpose of instruction for the animal husbandry classes last semester," according to R. B. Dooley, agricultural instructor. They were not selected out of a herd as being the best lambs of the crop, but were a little below average.

After the classes ended, the lambs were finished out and then sold. Average weight was 91 pounds.

Future plans include the selection of about eight Suffolk Rambouillet cross-bred lambs and about eight Rambouillet lambs to use in these classes.

Directing the Singing Sergeants will be Robert L. Landers, pictured. Official director of the USAF Band Glee Club, he has studied extensively under famous American conductors.

"W" DROP DEADLINE SET

"Saturday, April 23, is the last day to drop courses in which a student is failing without receiving an 'F' on his permanent record card," announced Dean P. E. Smith in assembly last Friday.

Before this time courses dropped are merely designated by a "W" on the permanent record.

MASTERTSON, SMITH TO ENTERTAIN AT ASSEMBLY

A change from the all-student to an all-faculty program will be evidenced Friday when Ralph Masterson, business instructor, and A. A. Smith, acting president, combine to produce the entertainment.

Masterson, at the piano, will accompany vocalist Smith in a program of songs and probably will be featured in a solo or two.

Spring Formal Draws Near

It's not long now until the SAC Spring Formal comes around. The Spring Formal is usually the social event of the year around the SAC campus; it's the big dance of the year.

There are still too many people griping about the lack of social life around the campus. The plain truth is, the people who gripe simply don't want to have a good time. They would much prefer to sit on the sidelines and gripe and snarl about SAC's "not having any social activities."

Those of us who attended the football games, the basketball games, the Winter Formal, the after-game dances, the backward dances, the Mush Week Li'l Abner Dance, and a whole lot more, know that there is really a lot of social activities going on around the campus.

And it doesn't take much work to find out about them. Usually, signs are posted all over the blackboards and pasted around the building.

So, if you complain about SAC not having things to do, you're just too lazy to read the signs and then go.

Recreational Program Needed

People often wonder why so many teen-agers—high school and college students, both—are hauled into court about such seemingly trivial things as breaking lights, speeding, D.W.I., and several other things.

There is a definite reason why this happens. First of all, what are the recreational facilities in San Angelo? If you don't go to a movie or out to some night club, you've either got to stay at home or go walking or driving around "to kill time."

When you're out killing time with nothing to do, maybe the first thing you see is a street light. The next thing you see is a rock. So you play Emily Post, and introduce the two. Rock meets light, then policeman meets you.

These and similar things might be prevented if there was a good recreational program around San Angelo. Of course, there are a couple of bowling alleys around, but what if you either don't like to bowl or else end up with a score of about 130, while your pal gets 279?

It's not the fault of the theatres. They do the best they can to get decent pictures, but sometimes the same show may be playing at as many as three of the theatres at the same time. And, besides, just going to the movie all the time gets monotonous. So there should be something else to do.

Let's all urge the City of San Angelo to institute a new recreational program for the city. Let's have fun, but be sure that it's good clean fun.

What Will Tomorrow Bring?

The world situation as it appears today has the people of the universe wondering just what tomorrow will have to offer.

The nations of the world all seem to have different ideas on what kind of government should be had by the many nationalities of people that exist on earth.

Some authorities say that war is inevitable, and from past experience and knowledge, it would be hard to discount this theory.

Many of us realize that it is impossible to predict economic or political circumstances, for no one is in the position, or has enough insight into the future to cope with this particular problem.

At the present time we are confronted with many serious problems that block peace negotiations between the leading powers of the world.

The United Nations assembly is trying to bring about a world peace, but their efforts have not been too successful up to the present time.

The United States, and other nations as well, are hopefully looking forward to a time when the many and different races can combine their efforts into a lasting peace throughout the entire world.

Inquiring Reporter

Throughout all centuries, women have been accused of talking too much. The present generation at SAC is no different, with the same criticism echoed by both the boys and the girls.

Your reporter asked the general question, "Do you think that women talk too much?"

Donald Patton — Deaf and dumb women don't.

Bert Dykes — After this morning, I know I do.

Teena McMullan — Most women don't talk too much, but I do.

Warden Mayes — At times.

Larry Workman — Just some of them. They just talk at the wrong time.

Jan Spaulding — Very definitely. Me for one.

Wallace Johnson — They are not any worse than a lot of the boys.

Bruce Jay — Yeah.

Mrs. Westerman — It depends on the woman, I think.

Carlene Lee — People can form their own opinions but I don't think they do.

Claude Brown — Just like a Model-T, you can't stop them.

Romon Lossen — I think that most people talk too much, including myself.

Ann Warren — Uh uh.

Herbert Yancy — Yeah I guess. Usually at the wrong time.

James Kerley — They usually stick their foot in their mouth — "hoof and mouth" disease.

Johnny Humphrey — No. If they talked less there wouldn't be much said.

Delores Wilbanks — If women don't talk, where would all the sweet words come from?

Barbara Dodson — I do.

Jeannine Young — Most of them.

Lou Ann Hollway — Most of them don't talk enough. They are so much smarter than men that they have to talk. (Ed. note — Oh, yeah?)

Joan Roberts — It's a proved fact that women talk more and men fight more.

Frances Manitzas — No. When they have something to say, I don't think so.

Mary Lou Meadows — Some women do.

Jimmy Smith — Check.

Mr. Inman — Do you want my honest opinion?

Howard Purvis — That all depends.

Spring Fever Makes Students Weary

Spring fever seems to be sweeping the campus and classrooms at SAC, if the yawning and sleepy-eyed students can be an indication of this possibility.

Just walk down the halls and observe people that have to lean on walls, or each other, to keep from sprawling on the floor.

This season of the year usually brings on these symptoms, although several of the couples at SAC seem to have acquired it during the autumn and winter.

So if your eyelids droop and you feel as if your shoes were filled with lead, don't worry about a thing, just a simple case of spring fever. This is just an incurable disease that strikes everyone this time of the year.

Six Drakers Given Members' Oath

Formal initiation for the incoming Draker members was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Bryant last Tuesday night.

The living room of the Bryant home was decorated in red, blue and grey, Draker colors. Flowers were used to carry out the color scheme.

Jimmy Lollar, president, administered the oath to the new members in an impressive candle-light ceremony. Boys taking the oath were John Wilson, Bill Wilkins, Dick Compton, George Lane, Charles Winburn, and David Deans.

A social hour for all the old and new members followed the ceremony.

Paging . . .

. . . BIRDIE DYKES

Probably the only student on the campus who has fulfilled a desire to pour hot coffee down someone's back is Birdie Dykes — only she really did it grand by pouring it down Dean P. E. Smith's back at a home-making dinner this year.

Bert is a sophomore at SAC and is majoring in English. She plans to transfer to Austin College at Sherman when she finishes at SAC.

Her activities at SAC include membership in the Home Economics Club, the Press Club, Lambda Tau's and Phi Theta Kappa.

She is a member of the Ram Page staff and has been doing excellent work on the paper this year.

Bert's favorite song at the present time is "Careless Hands." She also likes hillbilly music and popular songs. Strawberry shortcake, Kerrville, hayrides, and traveling are also included.

She dislikes hominy, studying, term themes (who doesn't) and insulting people.

When not a man-hater, she prefers tall brown-haired boys, and on dates she likes to go to the show, waste money on pin-ball machines, or just drive around.

She also likes sports and has won several medals for tennis.

. . . DONALD PATTON

Next on the list this week we have that likable boy from greater San Angelo by name of Donald Patton.

Donald is a freshman at SAC and graduated from San Angelo High School. He is president of the freshman class and is a student council member. He is also secretary of the OBZ's.

Don is majoring in P. E. and has not made definite plans as to where he will transfer. His ambition is to be a pro baseball player or to be a rodeo clown.

He says that he likes any sports, and also traveling and corny music. His ideal girl should be cute, especially friendly, and one who likes sports.

Donald is 5' 11" and weighs 145 pounds. He said that he would be doing good if he made it through SAC in two years. (Probably just being modest don't you think?)

In the coming SAC rodeo Donald will be on hand to perform as a rodeo clown, and this should prove to be something to observe.

. . . WILBURN GEORGE

For the benefit of the students that have not had the pleasure of meeting a certain individual, it is our pleasure to introduce Wilburn George.

Wilburn is a sophomore at SAC and is quite well-known around the campus. He graduated from Lake-View High School and has been at SAC for the last two years.

He is majoring in P. E. and plans to transfer to Texas Tech upon completion of his courses here.

Wilburn is vice-president of the OBZ's, and has a sophomore position on the Student Council.

Last year he had a good season with the Ram football team and played LHB on the team.

Wilburn is also quite well known around boxing circles in West Texas as he has participated in frequent Golden Gloves tournaments.

Among his likes he says he is partial to popular music, and likes chocolate cake, fried chicken and other good foods.

By the way, he is 5' 9" in height and has brown hair and green eyes (don't get those two backwards) and is 20 years old.

So the next time you see Wilburn be sure and say hello, because if you don't you'll probably make him feel badly by not being friendly.

. . . WAYNE WAHRMUND

Did you know that there is an ex-WAVE attending SAC? Well there is and her name is Wayne Wahrmund.

Wayne, a sophomore, is majoring in psychology and plans to transfer to NTSTC in Denton upon completion of her courses at SAC. (By the way, don't be fooled by the name Wayne, it's not a boy).

Top on Wayne's list of likes are flying, good movies, psychology, and most vegetables. On the other hand she loathes broccoli, brussel sprouts (what in the world is she talking about?), and conceited people.

Her work in the WAVES consisted of flying from Washington to California. She said that she liked that branch of the service because she met so many interesting people.

At the present time she is working on a plan to form a troop of sea scouts at the Naval station here.

Wayne's most exciting moment came when she was on a cross-country trip for the Navy, and the plane on which she was riding caught fire. The pilot had to land the plane on one engine and that was a difficult thing to do.

Tidbits

Everything seems to be running smoothly and according to schedule around SAC this week with the exception of these few things — Maudie writing cusswords in shorthand — Ray to Bobbie to Pat to Louise with a roll in the cafeteria, that is — those girls who have decided to become men haters. Poor Howard; he happened in at the wrong time and they took it out on him. Fortunately he was proud enough of being a man to defend himself — Teena and Bert jitterbugging — Jan and her diet of the "perfect food" — Those girls on reducing diets eating pie ala mode — Nellie and her "oscar". She made a great sacrifice and presented it to Jack — that bright idea of the Concho Aggies to call each other their girls' names — Don's not speaking to Louise because she cut her hair — Larry trying to use the biographical dictionary to look up words — those five girls smoking cigars — Mrs. Masterson's piano playing (it's wonderful) — Everybody studying in assembly — Orland in a mood again — the office force still playing the pin ball machines — girls at the information desk without any information — Mrs. Berry late again. Up to now she has eight tardies (two cuts and two tardies) She just has one to go! — Eddie putting ice down the girls' backs — Dixie losing her "Tidbit" column (too bad) — ten jillion people in the cafeteria — Jimmy refusing to give out any gossip (he's afraid) — Bill sitting with a different girl at the information desk every few moments — Joann luring all the boys at the interscholastic meet by reading Psychology to them (it really works) — all the SAC girls winking at the out-of-town boys — all the Aggies without ways to take their dates to the party — "Flash" Purvis — Judge Peacock — Joe serenading Mrs. Eilers in the hall with a Spanish ditty — the girl from New Mexico — all the boys looking for Mr. Fraser — Mr. Barnes sympathizing with the love-sick girls — Dick going around talking like that all the time — these stupid people who go swimming on cold days — Cookie trying to get the annual staff to work harder — lipstick on Probandt's sandwich (oh well, it's good for you).

STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

The Student Council held a meeting in 107 Monday night, March 28, and considered several major problems.

First, Mrs. Yearwood asked the Council to appropriate $200 from the Floating Fund for the Social Committee, in order that the spring picnic and dance might be held. The Council voted approval of the request on provision that any part of the $200 not used would be returned.

Joe Peacock was elected Social Committee chairman, with no dissenting votes.

Dean Smith then advised the Council to see that all pep squad girls should be notified to return their uniforms. No transcript will be given a girl unless she returns her uniform.

The qualifications for the RAM PAGE editor were discussed, and two plans were suggested: (1) the editor should be named by the Journalism Department and confirmed by the Student Council, or (2) two possibilities should be named by the department, with the student body voting on the final choice.

The first plan received support of the majority, and it is due to be presented at a meeting in the form of a resolution.

The final act of the Council was granting the power to the Business Office to draw on the Floating Fund to cover any deficiencies in any fund only while school is not in session.

The Council then adjourned, scheduling their next meeting for Monday, April 4 (night before last).

CLASS B MEET

dents really helped and "I certainly do appreciate the cooperation of the students."

Boys from the athletic department officiated at the baseball and softball games. Among these students were Bill Probandt, Gerald Burroughs, Billy McAngus, Dick Miers, Hugh Ingram, John Scott, and Norman Spray.

Among students who assisted by holding an information booth in the main hall were Sammy Fitzhugh, Barbara Dodson, David Hensley, Bill Wilkins, Barbara Roberts, Billie Barrett, Imogene Wheeler, and Patty Barth.

SAC Favorites To Be Presented At Spring Formal Saturday Night

Pictured reading copies of last week's RAM PAGE are Wayne Wahrmund, Donald Patton, Bert Dykes, and Wilburn George, who were interviewed for 'Paging' this week.

Got your dates, boys? If not, get busy 'cause the SAC Spring Formal is just around the corner — Saturday night out on the tennis courts. Highlight of the occasion will be the presentation of the RAMBOUILLET favorites at intermission.

The tennis courts will be decorated with hundreds of all-colored crepe paper roses. The rose garden will be lighted with artificial moon light.

Music will be furnished by Leonard King and his orchestra of Brownwood from 8:30 'til 1 o'clock.

One person of each couple must be a SAC student; girls must wear formal dresses and boys a suit and tie to be admitted, according to social committee authorities. A Student Activity Card must be presented for admission.

A door prize will be presented the couple who receive the ticket with the lucky number when they enter the rose garden.

Members of the social committee who have been working on plans for the formal are Joe Peacock, chairman, Teena McMullan, Jan Spaulding, Patty Barth, Mary Louise Schuch, Wallace Johnson, Gloria Glenn, Gerald Burroughs, Barbara Roberts, and Bill Wilkins.

Committee members have been working on the flowers, but they still do not have enough made. If anyone has any time that he can spend making flowers, he is asked to see any member of the committee.

Macomb and Bill Gill, Delbert Meyer, Karl Kiesling, and George Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Inman and Mr. R. B. Dooley, Concho Aggie sponsors, chaperoned the group.

KNOW YOUR LINES, GIRLS?

By Barbara Roberts

It is easy to go to town and buy a dress, but what really matters in good buying is all too often neglected. That important factor so often avoided is the line or cut of the dress. If you're slim like Peggy Bishop, Joy Wright, Margie Herbert or Pat O'Hara, you'll want fluffy feminine types of clothes. Full sleeves and flaring skirts will help aid unsuspected pounds, and dresses with curved lines will lend youth and roundness.

Plump girls like Helen Martin and Marlys Taylor should follow all the rules for the short person, for clothes which make you look taller will also make you look slimmer. Vertical lines are best for you, and skirt lengths should be a little longer than average. Remember that black and dark shades will make you look slimmer.

If you are short like Pat Sheen, Mary Frances Holloway, Nellie Toles, Betty Serface or Liz McGowen, you should wear Princess styles, which will give you that length of line you want. And never cut your figure by contrasting belts or seam lines below the waist line.

Tall girls like Hazel Stein, Billie Barrett, Pat Mitchell, and Lou Ann Holloway don't miss a thing, for they can always look over the crowd. But if you want to cut your height, select suits and two-piece outfits — with the exception of boleros.

So when you buy that dress, don't forget that the line of the garment can either make or break you!

LAMBDA TAU HAYRIDE TO HONOR THREE NEW MEMBERS

Plans for a hayride honoring new members were made when the Lambda Tau's met last Wednesday morning at the college.

The hayride, which will be held April 11, will be in honor of Patsy White, Christell Dunaway, and Margaret Macomb. The girls and their dates will go to either Christoval or Shady Lane.

At the meeting, Lambda Tau's also discussed the tree they are to give to the school.

Members present were Frances Manitzas, Teena McMullan, Mary K. Johnson, Carlene Lee, Patsy White, Imogene Wheeler, Jan Spaulding, Rita Papoutsas, Bert Dykes, Nellie Toles, and Betty Serface.

Aggies Have Barbeque-Dance

A barbeque-dance in the Ram Room last Friday night highlighted social activities for members of the Concho Aggies last week.

Members and their dates played pin ball machines, ate barbeque, had ice fights, danced, and "gabbed".

In on the fun were Maudie Watson and Galen Dodson, Gloria Glenn and Rushing Sheffield, Bobbie Vogel and Charlie Jackson, Pat Sheen and Billy Beard, Patsy White and Herschel Bonnet, Bert Dykes and Martin Blessing, Patty Taylor and Oodie Schlinke, Nelda Sheppard and Dale Malechek.

Peggy Bishop and Jack Ruttle, Deloris Wilbanks and Melvin Shook, Elva Wallace and Robert Buttery, Dorothy Stevens and Took Edwards, Rita McNutt and Tommy Green, Nancy Hardin and Boyce Perry, Margaret

DUAL MEET FOR RAMS WITH McMURRY TO BE IN ABILENE TODAY

A dual track meet with the McMurry College Indians is scheduled for this afternoon in Abilene.

This will be the first real meet for the Rams' tracksters for the '49 season. Last Tuesday a dual meet with the A.C.C. Wildcats was scheduled at Abilene, but high winds caused a last-minute postponement.

Friday and Saturday several of the Ram thinclads attended the Texas Relays at Austin, but this could not be classed as a regular meet.

Lineup for the Rams will be about the same as for the postponed A.C.C. meet. That lineup was published in last week's RAM PAGE.

A return match is scheduled with the Indians at the McMurry track on the local campus Wednesday.

PING PONG TOURNAY MOVING VERY SLOWLY

To date the proposed ping pong doubles tournament has been suffering for the lack of games played. To date, only two sets have been played.

Results of these two sets are as follows: Billy Shook and David Jones defeated Jimmy Cox and Gene Morrow; and Max Box and Worth Whitworth beat Bob Billington and Scott.

BASHFUL GIRLS SHOW

Ever notice a girl walking down the street by herself and observe that she is very meek and shy?

Well then, take this same person and put her with three or four more girls. Now you've got more noise than a barrel of monkeys in a tin building.

What causes this change is confusing, but it must be true that there is courage in numbers.

Boys are somewhat the same way, but girls have the edge somewhat when it comes to being downright silly.

So the next time you have nothing to do and lots of time to do it in, just watch the next group of girls that happen to be coming down the street and then draw your own conclusions.

Rams Open Spring Training Monday

Spring training for the Rams began Monday afternoon, with the following outstanding candidates coming out for possible future berths on the Ram squad:

Bob Cooper, Ozona, tackle; Joe Doyle, Chillicothe, tackle; B. J. Fugate, Kermit, end; Billy Foster, San Angelo, tackle; Johnny Bob Smith, Ballinger, back; Lane Dixon, Winters, back; Bill Vinson, Winters, back;

J. B. Dunnam, Winters, end; William Dyer, San Angelo, end; Bob Ingram, San Angelo, center; Jack Eicke, Brownfield, back; Bill Jones, San Angelo, center; Doug Bradham, San Angelo, back; Billy Sparks, San Angelo, end; Richard Almond, Kermit, QB; Horace Chaney, Plainview, tackle; Jack Seals, Big Lake, tackle; Bill McGuffin, Brownwood, tackle; Johnny Smith, Winters; and Dwight Woodall, Plainview.

TRACK SCHEDULE IS CORRECTED

A correction in the Ram 1949 track schedule which appeared in last week's RAM PAGE:

Tri-Meet with Schreiner and Howard Co. J. C., here, Saturday, April 9, not Wednesday, April 13; and Dual Meet with McMurry, here, Wed., April 13, and not Sat., April 9.

RAMS MARK UP GOOD TIMES IN RELAYS

In the Texas Relays held at Austin last Saturday, the Rams entered in only two events — the mile relay and the 440 relay. They failed to place in either event, as the freshmen from the larger colleges dominated that class.

Even though they didn't place, the Rams did pretty well in both events. In the mile relay, they had a time of 3:36:0 and in the 440 relay they had a mark of 44:8.

Rambling Rams

By ORLAND SIMS

Spring football training finally got underway out on the practice field Monday afternoon, with several lettermen and a large number of outstanding freshman candidates on hand.

It's still a little early to report on any outstanding stars developed in the spring session, but that will come along later.

Right now we might say that if you don't have anything to do, you might go out some afternoon and catch an eye-full of the Rams in training.

Texas A&M was awarded the second annual Southwest Conference Sportsmanship Trophy. The award is made annually by the BATTALION, Texas A&M's publication, and is awarded to the SWC school whose student body shows the most sporting attitude throughout the football season.

SMU won the first trophy, which was awarded in 1948 for the '47 season.

For those of you who missed the schedule in last week's paper, we're repeating the 1949 Ram track schedule:

Dual meet with McMurry at Abilene, today;

Tri-meet with Schreiner and Howard Co. J. C., here, Sat., April 9;

Dual meet with McMurry, here, Wed., April 13;

Dual meet with Schreiner, there, Sat., April 23;

Brady Invitational, Brady, Sat., April 30; and

SWJCC Conference Meet, Arlington, Fri., May 13.

It seems that once in a while there are a few details in one of these sport stories that are in error. Some of you probably think that we just go out of our way to get false facts and information in these stories, but let me assure you that this is not the case . . . it just seems like it. We really do what we can to check the accuracy of the stories printed, but errors sneak in anyway.

SWJCC ENTRY TOPS TOURNAY

Tyler's fast-moving Apaches captured the national championship of all J. C. basketball squads by downing Hutchinson (Kan.) J. C. 66-64, in the National J. C. Tournament held late in March.

Going into the tournament, the Apaches were not the favorites — Compton (Cal.) J. C. got the nod as favorite.

In the Apaches' opening game, they sunk Bayonne (N. J.) J. C. 64-42. In the second round, without even working up a sweat, they polished off Brainard (Minn.) by 66-42. That threw them into the semifinals against Compton.

Compton had previously been a jinx against the Apaches, beating them 20-19 in the '47 Little Rose Bowl, and defeating the Apaches' cage team 66-65 in the '48 basketball playoffs. However, this time the Apaches were not to be denied. They built up an early lead and worked smoothly to a 62-52 win over the California entry.

That put them in the national finals, against Hutchinson J. C., the host team, the cinderella team of the meet. Hutchinson (with a 7-8 pre-tourney record) subbed in for one of the teams that was unable to come, and licked three straight opponents to reach the finals. Though they were hard-pressed, Tyler came out on the long end of a 66-64 score.

USAF BAND

to many commercially-minded people, but to thousands of music lovers from coast to coast, that name has become synonymous with the best in saxophone artistry.

Smith is unique in that he possesses the rare ability to be able to play "long hair" or "jazz" music with equal facility.

There will be an afternoon and an evening performance, one to be presented at 3:30 p. m., and the other in the evening at 8:15.

Tickets are on sale at the San Angelo College business office and the BCD office in downtown San Angelo. Admission for the afternoon concert will be 50 cents for students and $1.20 for adults. Tickets for the evening performance will be $1.20 for all seats.

Meet Walking Man

Meet the Walking Man, otherwise known as R. M. Sprague, top-floor custodian at SAC.

Picking 'em up and laying 'em down is Sprague's job, and he does the routine of putting one foot before the other an average of 40,000 times a day. This figure was arrived at by figuring the length of the top floor at 170 feet, Sprague transverseing this distance 80 times each working day; with a 30-inch step, he makes about 34,000 steps doing that particular job; another quarter mile is added erasing blackboards, and Sprague estimates he adds an additional fourth-mile "just going up and down stairs".

Exactly, the total is 40,056 steps.

Track Meet Held On Campus Won By Robert Lee

Robert Lee's seniors, Water Valley's juniors, and Mertzson's grade school kids dominated their respective departments in the Interscholastic Track and Field Meet which was held on the SAC campus last Friday and Saturday.

While 10 of the 14 senior events saw new records set, the Robert Lee seniors swept to a lopsided victory in that class. Robert Lee rolled up 73½ points, while runner-up Mertzson drew down 37½.

In the Junior High class, the Water Valley juniors swept to a victory, tallying 36½ points. Second-place Robert Lee got 15 5/6.

In the grade school events, Mertzson's 18¾ was good for top honors, and Robert Lee came in runner-up with 16 2/3.

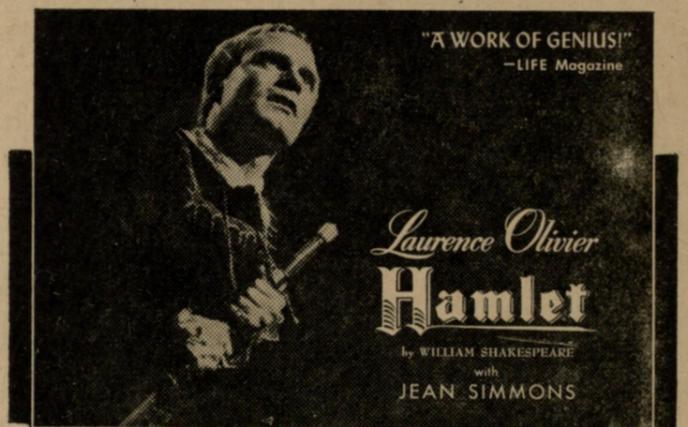

Others that scored in the Senior High class included Bronte with 32, third; Water Valley with 14, fourth; and Norton with 6, fifth.

In the Junior High level, other point-making squads included Norton, third, with 7½; Miles, fourth, with 2; and Mertzson, fifth, with 1½.

In the grade school events, in addition to the two leaders, these all counted: Bronte, 14¾, third; Wall, 7½, fourth; Water Valley, 5¼, sixth; and Norton, 3¾, seventh.

Tennis, volleyball, and softball will be concluded later. Neither tennis nor volleyball was started at the meet last weekend. Softball was started, but not finished.
