

Jan 5, 1941[sic]

Dear Mama,

We aren't having school today because the instructors are takeing[sic] the A.M. exam. It sure turned cold yesterday and has been cold today. I u[sic] heard we may go to school seven days a week but it's not official yet. I haven't looked up that lady yet. I went to a show yesterday afternoon and am planning to go to-night if I get all my homework. Is it very cold there? It's so damp here. Cold sure hurts. The altitude is 21 feet at the hangar. How's the cats? Take some pictures and send them to me.

Norman