Dear Mama,

I was going to write a letter this morning but I don't have time because we got paid. I drew $25.41. The review went off nicely yesterday but it was pretty cold. We wore our overcoats and down coats but the people watching must have froze.

I went to town about three o'clock yesterday and tried to see the proofs from the pictures but couldn't. I hear that studio is a fake so I'm going to try another next chance I get. I put my watch in the jewelry but can't get it out to Mom. I will have to let some get it for me. There only 50 days left in school now. Only 20 days will be school & the rest experience
