N York. Oct 20. 1843.

Dear Sir,

Allow me to introduce to you my friend Mr Edmund Tweedy of N York, who [retiring] from a successful business is using an opportunity of leisure to visit Europe. He is anxious to make himself acquainted with European Society and manners, and to gain information upon the great social [ques] [unclear] which are now interesting men. By any advice of facilities which you may open him, you will greatly oblige me, and you will find yourself compensated in the pleasure of his acquaintance.

With respect regards

Yr friend

[Wm. Chaucy]
