Pan Am golfers

Forty-nine players from the Pan American Golf Association of San Angelo participated in the National PAGA Convention recently in Austin. Local San Angelo winners include (from left) Lupe Trevino, first place, seventh flight, 89-84-173; Jesse Sanchez, 10th place, sixth flight, 91-91-182; Ernest Perez, who was elected National PAGA president for the next two years; and Lupe Perez Jr., first place, first flight, 77-74-151. Winners in each flight received trophies and first-place winners in each flight also received diamond rings.
