

March 4, 1942

Dear Mama,

I finally got around to buying a money order. I am sending twenty dollars. Ten of it is Waldene's and you can do what you want to with the rest.

I got your card and Gertrude's letter this morning. This answers the card and I will answer the letter soon.

It's cloudy and looks like rain this morning. Yesterday, sure was a pritty day. It was warm a [sic] clean. I haven't got my watch back yet and don't know when I can but I sure need it.

Norman