

May 18, 1945

Dear Mother,

Your letter of the 8th, 9th and 11th were here for me last night when I came back from town. I didn't know the bonds had stoped [sic] coming. They have still been taking the money out of my pay so the first chance I get I will have to see about them. I want them to continue [page 2] to be sent to you. Everything is ready for the wedding now. It is only a few more days off.

Your other package hasn't come, but I am looking for it most any time now. I will tell Jean that you are sending another dress for her. She will be so glad to get it. I finally managed to get her a trunk yesterday.

Your son,
Tom D