

June 1, 1945

Dear Mother,

Jean surprized [sic] me by coming out to the base yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She had been to London the day before but had to have another paper signed so came out and was going back again at 2 o'clock this morning. She didn't leave her until after ten o'clock so she will really be a tired girl when she get [sic] through traveling around. They told her to send this paper enclosed to you so I will as it will reach you quicker than if she did.

[page 2] Your letters of the 24th and 25th came yesterday. I was very glad to receive them.

The last time I wrote to you I sent you a set of the pictures of our wedding I hope that you like them and get them in good condition. I only put them in an envelope and it was almost to [sic] small. So let me know how you get them.

When is Julia going to write to me. I would be very pleased to have a letter from her.

Your son,
Tom