

Mar. 27, 1943
5:00 P.M.

Dear Mother,

I won't know until Harry comes in tonight whether I will be home or not.

We have been working extra hard so that we wouldn't have to work Sunday. We caught up with our work so we don't have to work Sunday.

I will try to write you a long letter tomorrow if I don't see you.

Love, Mae