Dear Mama,

I got Daddy's letter yesterday afternoon. I wrote a letter last Saturday and put in my locker until I got a chance to mail it. I found it yesterday.

I had a nice time in Salt Lake City. I got back early Saturday morning. The bus fare was $3.40 and my share of the room was $1.00 a night. I didn't do much but walk the sheets and go to shows and eat ice cream but that was a lot of fun.

Well we are packed and ready to go. The trucks leave tomorrow and we leave on the train Thursday. I don't have much time so I've got to close.
