

Hankins plans town hall meetings

Newly seated San Angelo City Councilman Hank Hankins will have two town hall meetings with constituents Thursday.

From 5:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m., he will meet with residents in voting boxes 144, 145, 240 and 253 at Belmore Baptist Church, 1214 S. Bell St.

Between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m., Hankins will meet with residents in voting boxes 225 and 230 at Southgate Church of Christ, 528 Country Club Road.

This will give residents of Single Member District 1 an opportunity to let him know their concerns about issues the district will be facing, Hankins said.

It also allows him to meet the voters, Hankins added.
