

19 to get new ministry status tonight in Corpus Christi

Thirteen women and six men are to be set apart tonight in Corpus Christi for various ministry offices within the United Methodist Church.

A 7:30 p.m. ordination, commissioning and consecration service at the Bayfront Plaza Convention Center is part of this week's Southwest Texas Annual Conference session.

Three deacons and associate clergy members of the conference—two men and one woman—are to be ordained elders in full connection within the conference. Elders are called to ministries of word, sacrament, order and service.
