

Somewhere in England

Dear Mother,

At last I am here. I landed on the 16th. I do not know very much about what I am going to do. If I did I couldn't tell you anyway. I like England fine so far. I made one liberty and saw an American and an English picture show. It was so dark I could not tell much about the place.

Coming over on the ship named after Matagorda Bay Texas we [illegible deletion] came through a big storm. One time the ship made a 53 degree list, 2 more degrees and we would have been gone. It was so rough that for four days we had to eat sandwiches as the tables and benches would not stay up. I would like to tell you more but one page on one side is all that I can write. When you write back do not write on Vmail. It may be 6 weeks before you get another letter so do not worry. Hope everyone is O.K.

Your son,
Tom D
