

June 16, 1944

Dear Mother,

I mailed you one letter this morning. Since then I have been to the post office and got a money order so I am going to send it in this letter.

Tell me if you have received the other money orders that I sent you last month.

Nothing has happened of interest since last night.

Your son,
Tom D