

Dear Mama,

I got your letter dated Nov. 24th today. I got the sweater and it fit fine. I went to London last week for the first time. I wouldn't go back for the place. I saw all the famous buildings. We had an old man to show us around. I could not see so many places that had been bombed. There was a few building nocked [sic] out.

If Jr. Gibbs ever comes to England let me know his APO as soon as you can. If you can send me his address now and I will write him.

Don't worry if I don't write very much because there is no danger where I am. I don't write because there ain't a thing to say.

Love,
Norman
