

Dear Mama,

I'll just write a few lines and let you know there isn't anything to write. I got a letter from Leo Bell yesterday. I'm working on my letter writing and don't know when I will get to catch up. I made 82 on a simajinal in instruments. We are signing the pay roll this morning but I haven't signed yet I don't know what time I will get to sign. It has been cold yesterday and today. The sun is shining this morning so it may warm up. Did Dad ever talk to Ma & Jon?

Norman
